MATTHEW:
 An interesting person is usually full of vigor, surprises, excitement. and... simply a bubble. These qualities I have seen in you and they do a good job in complementing your strong character.
 Continue to have Christ as your friend and you will succeed in everything.

What's happening, Cruz, I have to hand it to you you really have what it takes to get through life.
 I only wish I had what you do. I've been in whatever I've been at Lynnwood. I know I complain a lot about the school but deep down in I really like it.

The background of the cover is a photograph of a sunset. The sun is a bright, glowing orb in the upper left quadrant, casting a long, shimmering reflection across the water in the lower left. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds. In the background, the dark silhouettes of industrial buildings with tall chimneys are visible against the horizon.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The most important element in the life of an individual is time. In the 90th division of the Psalms we read: "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

Human beings do not naturally appreciate the blessings of time. During childhood and adolescence we waste it; we misuse it; we take it for granted; we get bored with it; we even, at times, wish we did not have it. Some individuals are never able to cope with the responsibility of handling time. Most of us though, begin to "number our days" by early adulthood. By this period of our lives we begin to realize that time lost could mean an eternity lost. Some progress even further by grasping the soul-saving truth that time without God leads to a godless eternity.

Young friends, never forget that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." It is my sincere hope that your stay here at Lynwood Adventist Academy will have helped you to value the gift of time. Most of all, may it have led you to choose to serve the Author of time, so that you may one day have the incomparable joy of living with Him throughout eternity.

Lovingly,

Roland L. McKenzie

"I need to learn how to use time!"

A TIME

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance: A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

The journey through time Begins with a single step; Reaching and searching for that Intangible moment When one's Identity is Materialized.

Super Senior

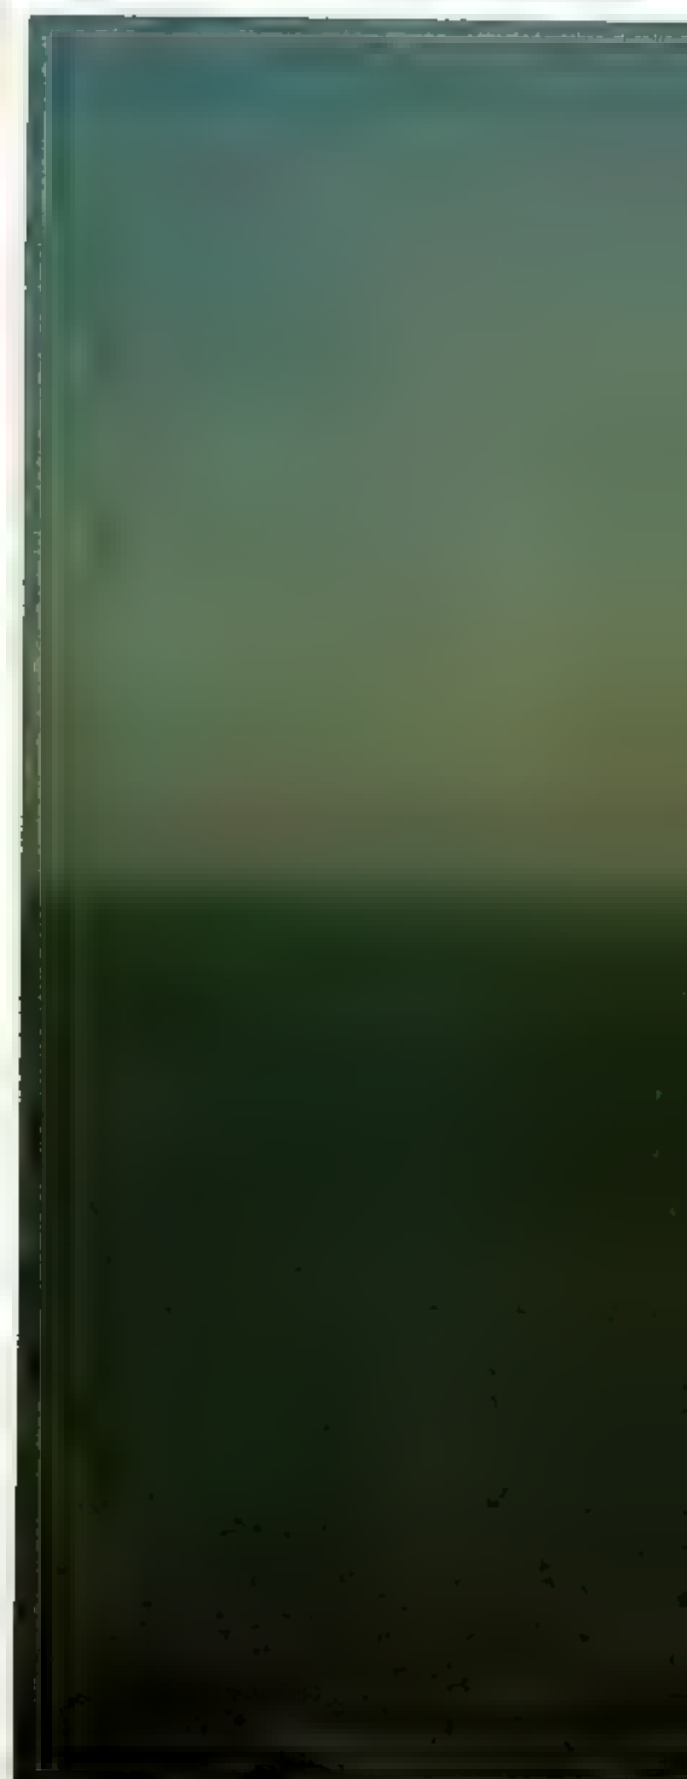

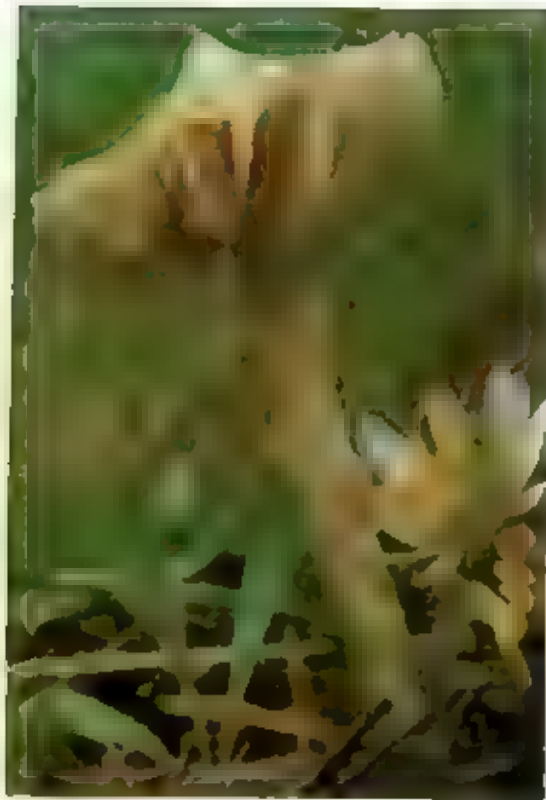

Super Fly

Your friend, Nancy

In the beginning,
We understand
Neither the universe,
Nor the world,
Nor people,
Nor ourselves.
Blindly, we reach,

We push forward individually To prepare for the time when The future becomes the past,
The dream becomes a reality,
A life imagined becomes a life lived.

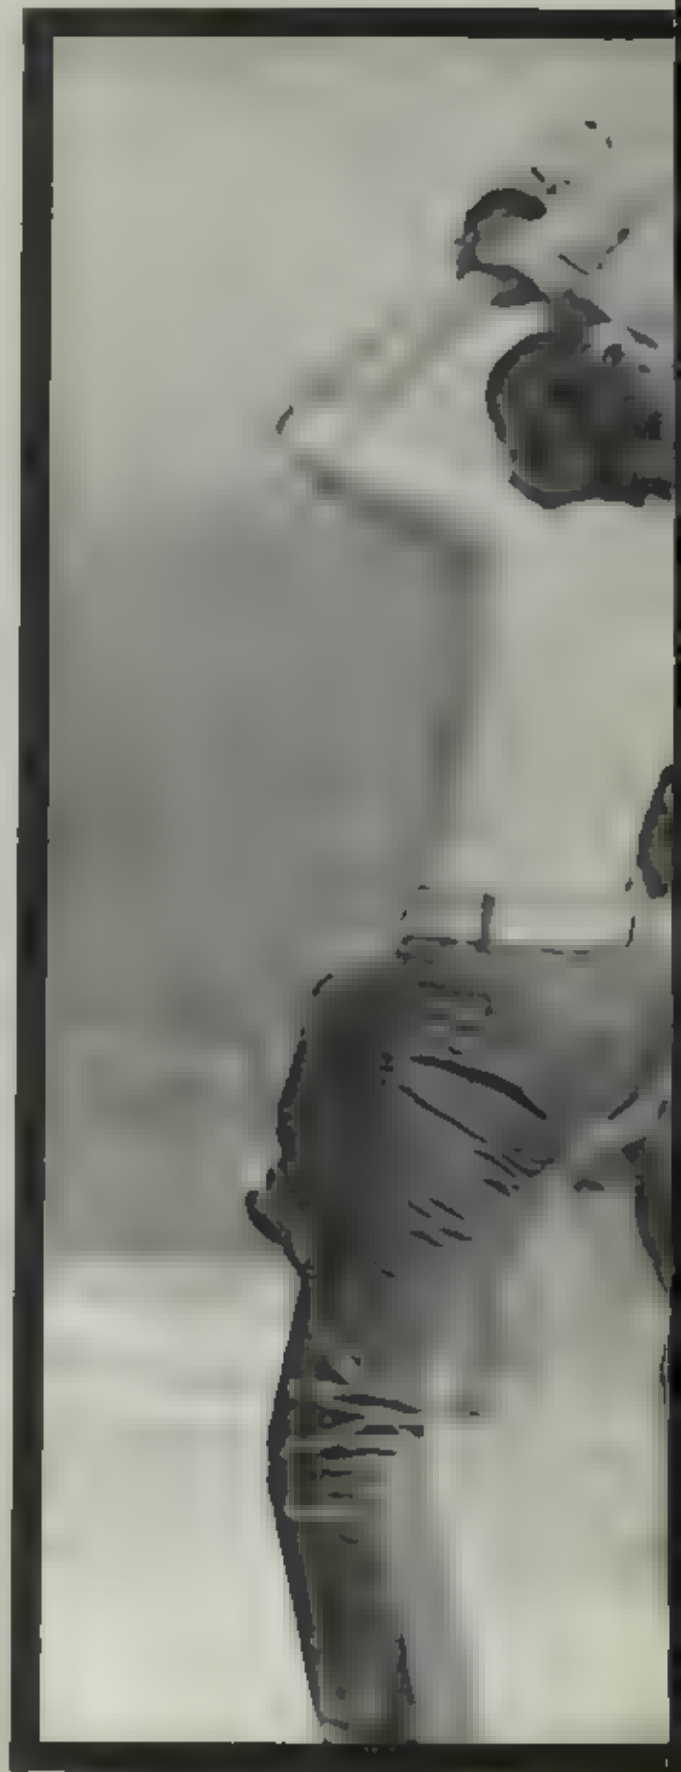

Hoping to remember the memories
That must be left forever untouched,

We pause to remember the good times, Before movin' on through time.

Time erases all but memories. — Unknown

Dedication

Because of:

- . . . their willingness to help anytime, and to listen to our problems,
- . . . their understanding in the classroom when we just didn't grasp the meaning of what they were teaching us,
- . . . their patience in helping us struggle through the hard times,
- . . . their interest in us not only as students to be taught, but as people to be valued as individuals,
- . . . their example to us as Christian teachers and friends. . .

Because of all they have meant to us this year and past years, we dedicate to the Faculty of Lynwood Adventist Academy the 1975 Shipmate.

Log Campaign

Face it, the Log party was a whole lot better than the log campaign. Other than a lot of noise from the Freshmen and a real nice time both sides by the seniors, the campaign was a flop. Well, maybe not a flop, but three or four times the extensions to a campaign is hardly what you could call a blinding success. Pictures taken from the Park, baseball, football, food, rowboat, skis, big, big crabs, surfboard, and all kinds of good stuff. As for the Trask team, they passed the first annual Pull row! Football classic. It was the only score of the football contest. The Faculty, of course, stopped the seniors' ascent of the stairs.

Clean-up Day

There still is a lot of work to be done. In our 12th week of Prayer, we put the 12th and 13th of October with a Clean-up Day. We picked up trash, started up recycling bins, and painted out graffiti. Our students would be concerned about their city's future. We were, it was fun, and we were able to witness for the Lord with our service to the community.

Candlelight Service

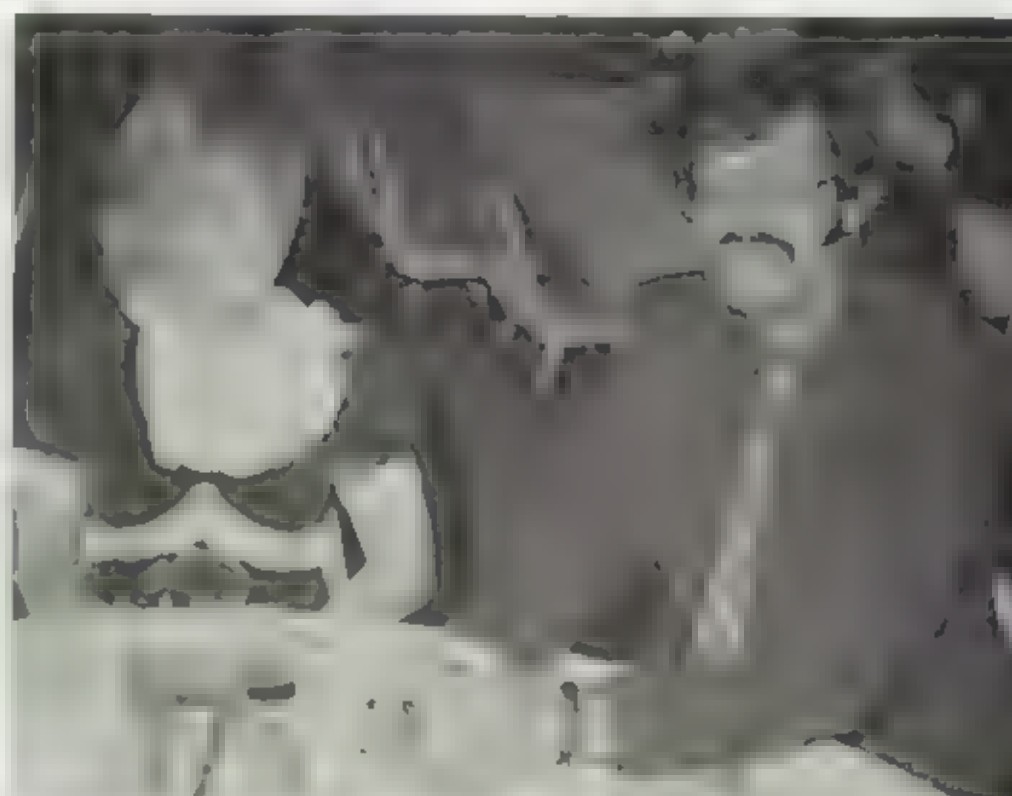

The candlelight service is a beautiful sight at the old schoolhouse. We know that the performers are like absolute savages at least part of the time. But when they march in singing the hymns and sound like a perfect replacement for the fallen band. This year we had a band that performed a Christmas cantata with the voices of the people who did it. The band played for two or three hours and quit for the night. The band was made up of the boys and girls of the schoolhouse. Let them know the chapel, super fine track stereo. It was a great idea. A few candles were lit to the offering plate and went away with a blessing. So did we.

Student Leadership Day

Christmas Banquet

The Christmas banquet was a hometown affair. Cruz and his crew of elves transformed the cafeteria with a magical poof, complete with chants and incantations, which took about eighteen hours of class and sleep time. The food was local and prepared by Lois Johnson. It was some of the best food we have had at a banquet. Usually we have to stop at the Pup 'N T, on the way home to keep away the pangs. Even the entertainment was our own--students singing, playing and telling really bad jokes (elephants vet!). Jolly ole Saint Catchums pelted us with candy canes and broke up the party. Nobody, but nobody, went straight home, as directed by Mr. McKenzie in his closing prayer.

Junior Senior Banquet

The Junior-Senior Banquet was sponsored by the effort of the Junior-Senior class to provide them with a banquet. The food was not the best but the greatest part was the music provided by Robert White. It was a great success and the students enjoyed it very much. It was a great start to the next year and a lot of fun. It was a great success and the students enjoyed it very much.

opened his mouth, and blessed are the pure in spirit: for they shall see God 4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted 5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth 6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled 7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy 8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God 9 Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God 10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven 11 Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.
13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.
14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.
15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick: and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.
16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.
17 Think not I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.
18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.
19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do, and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness

The title appears to be "The History of the United States" or something similar, but it is difficult to read due to the stylization. Below the title, there is more text, which is also handwritten and difficult to decipher. The text seems to be a historical account or a list of events. The overall appearance is that of a handwritten document or a page from a book.

Life is full of promises.

And traps!

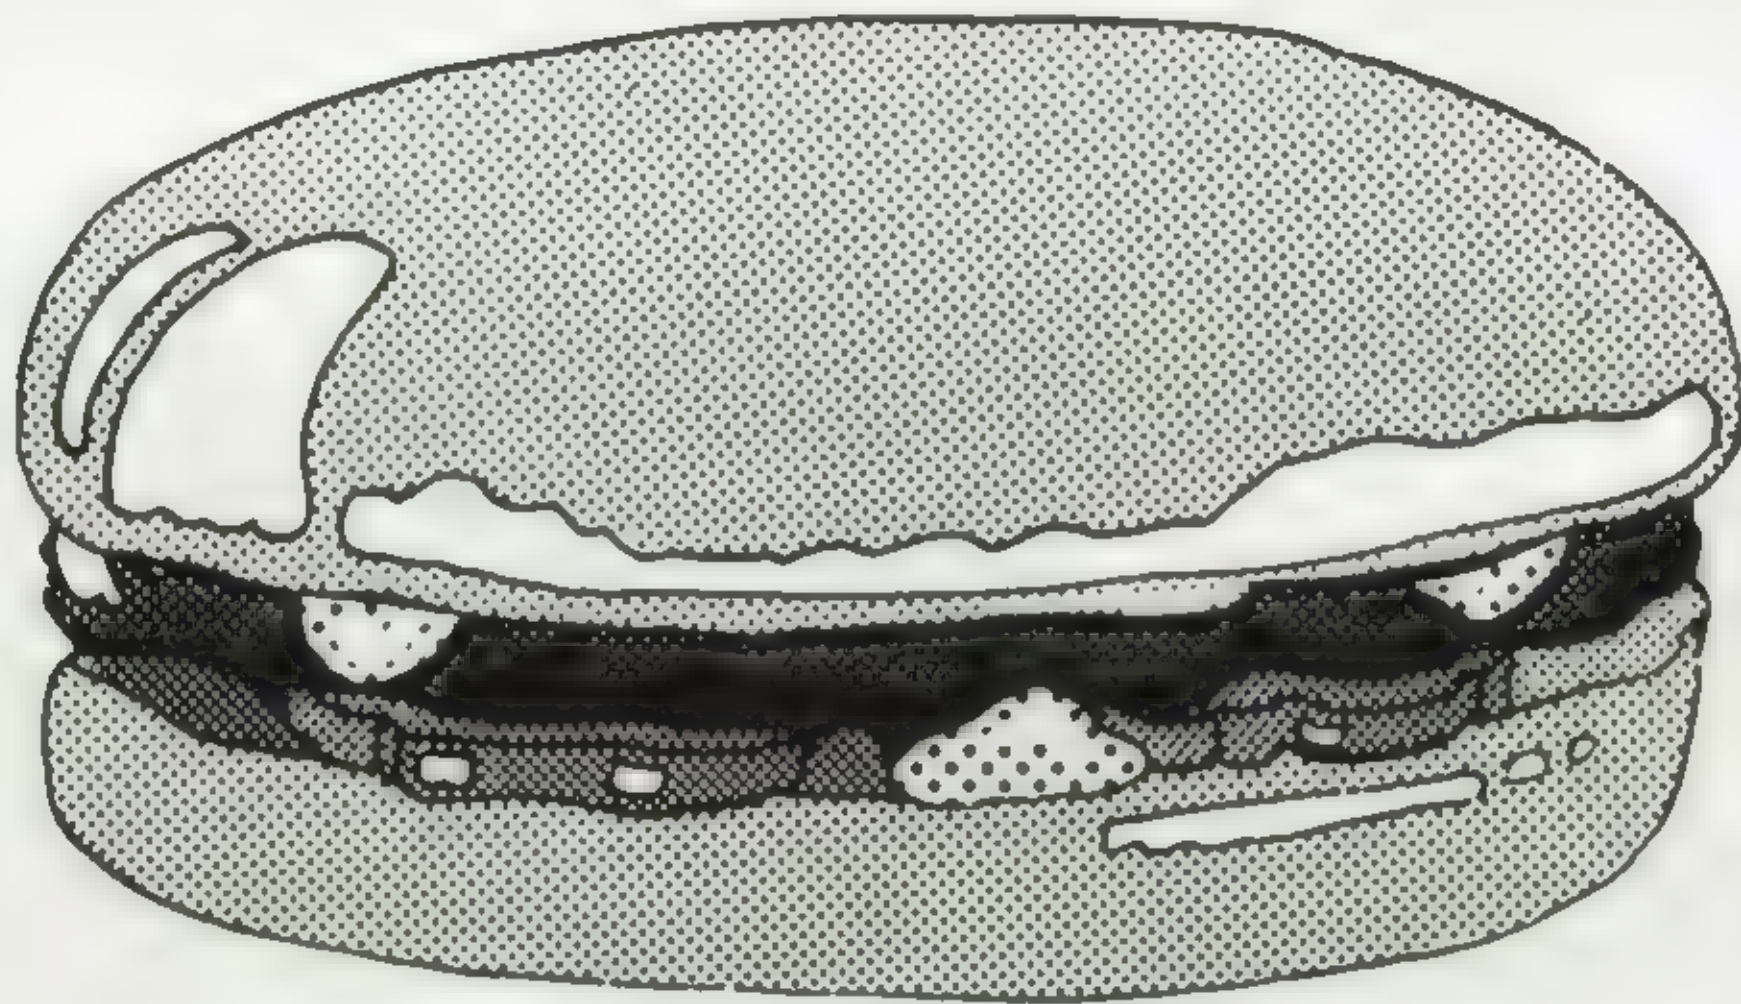

Life is full of promises. Especially when it comes to job offers. High Pay. Short hours. Long vacations. But there's always one trap. Most offers stress everything but the job itself. Now, after all, if you don't enjoy your work, no amount of fringe benefits can make up for it.

At Glendale Adventist Medical Center, the job itself is an incentive. In addition to the fringes. So, whatever your major, write for our brochure "The More You Give." No traps involved.

The sound of the seventies.

Chomp! A McDonald's Cheeseburger. Fresh, good-for-you cheese. A pure beef patty. A tender bun. Tastes as good as it sounds.

HYYA CRUZ!

WHEN, OUR DUTIES ARE FINALLY OVER. I'VE NEVER GADUE TTKU ANYTHING QUITE SO HAIRY!! (OR REWARDING). SURE HELPS YOU TO REALIZE THE EXTENT OF YOUR POTENTIAL. THAT ONE RAINY DAY AFTER SCHOOL HAD TO BE THE LIMIT! I'VE NEVER HEARD THE BEAR GRUL SCULPT IN ALL MY LIFE. ONE THING I SUPER APPRECIATED WAS THE EAGER OPENNESS WITH WHICH YOU RECEIVED SUGGESTIONS. YOUR PATIENCE WITH MY FOREVER QUESTION "WHITTEN DOIN'?" WITH ALWAYS BE VIVID IN MY MIND. SEE, I HAVE THIS, A FINITE CURIOSITY AND FEEL QUITE LEFT OUT UNLESS I HAVE THE HOEDOWN ON EVERYTHING. YOUR TALENT SPILLS OUT ALL OVER THE PLACE AND ESPECIALLY GLOWS WHEN VENTED ON CINDY. YOU'RE A ROMANTIST FROM WAY BACK. SHE'S AN AWFUL LUCKY LITTLE WOMAN. WE DID PRODUCE A WORK OF ART, NOW DIDN'T WE? THANK FOR INCLUDING ME ON YOUR STAFF. YOU'RE A GREAT BOSS!

Tell Matthew,
It looks like we finished another year of French class.
Est-ce je peux aller
au W.C! Parlez-vous français? Good luck at La Sierra with Ray Roy
Love
to Matthew Your a cool white boy!
Especially since you put me in the annual so much.
I know you'll have success in the future, by the way you syke people out!
Later
Jef

30 Matthew,
I don't really know you as a friend, but I think you're a very nice and fun person to have as a friend. Probably met knew a other better than at La Sierra. Lots of luck in the future. Love, Jean.
